JAS. YOUNG KILLS A MAN WITH A PLANK.

Domestic Tragedy at Weaver's Store, Tennessee Sunday.

MAN'S SKULL CRUSHED.

Brothers-in-Law Fall Out and One Kills The Other.

News was received in the city yesterday of a killing which occurred near Weaver's store, about four miles West of Lafayette, Sunday. Details are meager, but the facts, as learned, are about as follows:

A man named Wallace, who married a sister of James Young, of the same section, while under the influence of liquor came home and began to abuse his wife and his mother-in-law. Young remonstrated with his brother-in-law and some hot words passed between them. Wallace then drew his pistol, but before he could use it Young struck him over the head with a plank, knocking him down. His skull was crushed in and he died from the effects of the wound a few hours afterward, without regaining consciousness.

Immediately after the trouble Young left and at last accounts had not been arrested. He is a young man and is unmarried. Wallace is also under thirty and had been married for several years.

THE MISSING ENGINE.

"Friday 'n' the thirteenth coupled to a hard combination to play ag'in, 'n' I had some misgivings on goin' out that evening," said the engineer. "We were due to go out on No. 13, which is carded to leave at 11 p. m."

"Murphy didn't like it a bit, but I swung a bluff that it was all the same to him."

"We got down to the train shed, 'n' I lay aside my umbrella and coat, for it was time, there being a wind somewhere up the main line, 'n' the station master held us until they got a way through."

"As a fortified bluff on this superstitious line, I'd a made Gibraltar rock like the one I seen, but I found out that my hair had been cut, so I was more apt to assume a recumbent posture as the hands of my watch moved steadily onward toward midnight 'n' the prospects were good for two of our hoodoo 'hein' to be out in the back when it got to be Saturday, the 14th."

"Thirteen, the number of our train, however, would still be doing business at the old stand. However, I'm strong on superstition, 'n' I alone 'n' single-handed was a hoodoo."

"Shortly after midnight on Saturday the 14th, we got a way along with runnin' orders over the Bergen county, a short cut through the meanders, the road out 'n' make the way of the ocean. This short cut look like an asphalted boulevard, it's so rough 'n' crooked. Why, I came over there with a dairy 'n' egg train one night, 'n' when I got in the eggs were all scrambled, so the milk was churned to butter."

"After we got started I got my nerves again, 'n' mebbe we didn't do the first few miles of that old branch! Why, we'd a made the Twentieth Limited look like a pinto pony in a race."

"Goin' up through the swamp, I could see a headlight flashin' 'n' aintinatin' through the trees, but paid no attention to it, thinkin' it was on the eastbound track. Just before we got to Ten Degree curve, I stoops over to see what was the trouble, 'n' I seen a light engine comin' straightenin' up again after gittin' it adjusted to my satisfaction, great jumpin', bumpin' bluffs! if that headlight was comin' through the swamp wasn't comin' straight at me on the westbound track."

"I could see it was a light engine, with no cars. It was one of 'em switchin' dinkies, 'n' looked like a watch charm alongside the monster I was drivin'."

"My first impulse was to jam on the air, but I had to stop, but by some very quick thinkin' I figured out my engine 'n' the train behind it been heavy we had more show by puttin' on full steam than if we'd stuck up, so breathin' a prayer for the men on the other engine, I pulled her wide open 'n' dropped her to the ground. For the speed we were goin' I saw that we'd come together right on the point of the curve. The light engine swingin' round, we had a good chance of knockin' her from my ears."

"Then I opened my eyes to find us straightenin' out on the straight track head 'n' movin' along as if nothin' had happened. The light engine was nowhere in sight. The 13 was gittin' in its little place."

"Murphy, did you see a engine comin' toward us, then?" I say to Mike, thinkin' perhaps I'd been asleep.

"Sure 'n' I did," wails Murphy, "n' we'll never git home alive over this night."

"Well, we stopped 'n' looked aroun', assisted by the train crew. We could find no trace of a engine on my engine. The recent rains 'n' damp weather had left about 15 inches of water coverin' the mud bottoms, to the right of the track. There was a little cloud of steam comin' out of the lake, but as it was always more or less foggy there we thought nothing of it."

"The conductor thought I was givin' him a pipe dream, I guess, for after a few minutes he suggested that we move on, seein' as we were some late anyway. I found out he was right."

"Before we got in with our train Saturday mornin' I'd fully resolved to quit the business, havin' seen so many strange things lately. When I reached the round house I found a message from the manager of the railroads, sayin' if we need anything 'n' switchin' the 13 is all the Bergen town that night. She'd slipped her throttle at Cheechuck round house 'n' the last seen of her she was beat! It east on the track track at a 45-degree angle. She hadn't been in the ass of Ten Degree curve."

"Well, sir, it had the solution 'n' I wired to 'em hoofit. I told 'em they'd probably find her imbedded in the mud near Ten Degree curve."

"Yessir, that was her I saw comin' at me, but I was so far gone 'n' was goin' so fast 'n' high, with no control, when she started to take the curve she jumped the rails 'n' buried herself in the mud 'n' water in the swamp, a hundred feet to the right of the track. They dug her up, but never put her in a commissary after she was famous for runnin' away!"—N. Y. Sun.

TO OUR FARMER FRIENDS

Clarksville, Tennessee, January 3rd, 1905.—This crop of tobacco, being of better quality and shorter in average yield, are two reasons for expecting better prices. Besides, full confidence as to the final outcome, may be based upon the wise combination of the farmer to prize and put his tobacco in condition for the best demands, only to be found on the open market. The era of combination, which is broken, is broken, and we predict an era of greater prosperity will come to tobacco growers. The farmers will not regret the money they have made, and the more compact their organization, the greater their influence.

As we have done for the past years past, we sell the patronage of farmers. Therefore, our best efforts in their behalf can safely be relied upon. Our warehouse is open day and night, and provided with good, comfortable free quarters for teams and teamsters under the same roof. Your Friends, KENDRICK-RUNYON TOBACCO WAREHOUSE COMPANY

AMERICAN MONTALY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

The more Magazines there are, the more indispensable is The Review of Reviews

"Indispensable." "The one magazine I feel I must take." "The world under a field-glass." "An education in itself." "A storehouse of knowledge." "These are some of the phrases we hear from noted persons who read the Review of Reviews. The more magazines there are, the more necessary is the Review of Reviews, because it brings together the best that is in all the most important periodicals of the world. Such is the value of periodicals that the most noted and busy people say that it is better to keep up with it to read the Review of Reviews entirely over and above this reviewing section, it has more original matter and illustrations than most magazines, and the most timely and important articles printed in any monthly.

Probably the most useful section of all is Dr. Allen St. John's "Illustrated Program of the World," where every country is described authoritatively and lucidly explained in every issue. Many a subscriber writes, "This department alone is worth more than the price of the magazine." The unique cartoon department depicts current history in cartoon form, and is a great favorite with all. The Review covers the entire world, and yet is American, fair and forcible.

Men in public life, the members of Congress, professional men, and the great captains of industry who must "keep up with the times," intelligent men and women all over America, have decided that it is "indispensable."

ANXIOUS TO ILLUSTRATE.

"Judicial Ignorance" seeks explanation of a "MILL" but Declines Practical Exhibition.

The quality known as "judicial ignorance" is as often amusing as it is assumed. The most "ignorant" of magistrates may, however, carry the thing a little too far. Not long ago a young hooligan was charged with grievously assaulting another of the same class, says London Tit-Bits.

"What have you to say for yourself?" demanded the magistrate.

"It was a fair fight, your worship," was the reply. "I didn't begin it." "E" (complainant) "walks up to me an' offers to put me through it."

"Through what?" asked the magistrate.

"Through the mill!"

"What mill?"
The prisoner simply gasped, and it was only after a very thoughtful pause that he replied: "Well, guv'nor, I can't explain no plainer, but"—with an air of one anxious to oblige—"I could show you hexactly 'ow it's done!"

"No, thanks! No, thanks!" remarked the magistrate, somewhat hurriedly. "Twenty shillings and costs!"

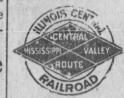

His Old Weakness.

"Ah," said Mrs. Oldcastle, "I had your husband hors de combat last night."

"Did you?" replied Mrs. Packenham. "He told me that he was goin' to the automobile show, but Josias always did have a soft spot for horses. You know he got his start in life runnin' a dray?"—Chicago Record Herald.

UNCOMMON WISDOM.

Some Hopkinsville People Profit By Neighbor's Experience.

It's a wise man who profits by the experience of his friends and neighbors. Here is a chance to do it and every man, woman or child in Hopkinsville who knows the misery of a long night's sleep, the discomfort andlessness caused by kidney complaint or the annoyance of urinary disorders, will show uncommon wisdom to profit by this citizen's advice.

J. W. Pritchett retired grocer of Hopkinsville, Ky., 60 years of age, has given me a great deal of trouble. The pain was not continually severe, but came on by intermittent spells, which were sometimes very painful especially after over-exertion of any kind. Being constantly on the outfit for a walk, however, one night, I happened to read of Doan's Kidney Pills, and was so impressed with the testimonials to its worth, that I procured a box at Thomas & Trahern's drug store. The pills benefited me in every way and I hope the advertisement will be of the means of extorting relief to some other sufferer."

CONFERENCE FOR PEACE AT COPENHAGEN.

Belief That Russia and Japan Are Preparing to Quit.

BOTH HAVE ENOUGH.

Japan is Financially Embarrassed and Russia is Whipped.

London, March 26.—According to arrangements which are still liable to revision, King Edward will leave London on April 6. He will join Queen Alexandra at Cologne, and from thence Their Majesties will go to Copenhagen for the celebration of the birthday of King Christian, April 8. The Associated Press correspondent at Copenhagen telegraphs to-night that so far as known King Edward's visit has no connection with Russo-Japanese peace pour parlers, but that King Christian strongly favors peace, and should the Dowager Empress of Russia also come to her father's birthday celebration, it will be regarded as a signal of a peace conference at Copenhagen.

It is reported that M. D. Iswolsky, the Russian Minister to Denmark, left St. Petersburg on Saturday for Copenhagen.

A St. Petersburg dispatch to the Renter Telegram Company states that the majority of the Council of Ministers agreed on the principal of the opportunity of initiating steps in the direction of peace, and correspondents in the principal European capitals all report that peace is in the air.

ANCIENT COIN

Dug Up In An Indian Grave
Near The City.

Mr. James G. Jesup last week bought from a colored man an ancient Spanish coin that was dug from an Indian grave in the suburbs. It was 116 years old and was probably buried in 1838, when the Cherokee Indians passed through this city en route from Alabama to the Indian Territory. Several of them died while they were camped near Cate's Mill. One side of the coin has "1789 Louis IV." and a head of some monarch. The other side has "Hispano E I Ind. Rex." The coin is a little larger than a silver dollar, but not so thick. It is worn slick, but otherwise is well preserved.

Is Grateful To His Friends

port.

Mr. Thos. D. Jameson, of Pembroke, who was recently called upon by many voters to run for sheriff on the Democratic ticket, has declined to be a candidate. This will be a disappointment to many Democrats, who regard him as one of the strongest and most influential Democrats in the county. He authorizes the publication of the following notice to the party leaders, who will meet next Monday:

Notice.

Pembroke, Ky., March 27, 1905. Having been urged by many friends throughout the county to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for sheriff of Christian County, I have given the matter mature consideration and have reached the conclusion that, owing to the constant care which my farm and other interests require, I must decline. Were it possible to do so, it would be the greatest pleasure of my life to comply with the wishes of my friends, and express my interest manifested in my behalf, and will ever remember these friends with a heart full of gratitude.

Thanking each and every one for honor thus conferred upon me and assuring them of my high appreciation of their confidence and good will, I beg to remain
Yours,
THOS. D. JAMESON.

The Equity warehousemen started in to handle $1,000,000 pounds. That figure was reached today, and it is now believed that fully $4,000,000 pounds will be placed in the warehouses. The success of the movement has far outstripped the expectations or even the hopes of those who had the matter in hand.

Often The Kidneys Are

Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.
It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the kidney, and that is the most important organs.

The kidneys filter nearly the blood that is their work.
Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because it is soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake in first destroying your kidneys. NEAR DEATH'S DOOR

Lena Vollman, a thirteen-year-old school girl of Owensboro, who had jumped a rope 75 successive times, fell over in a dying condition. It was thought for some time that her heart had stopped beating. Strychnine was injected in her veins and she was brought back to consciousness, but soon her face and hands began to turn purple, and she again lapsed into unconsciousness. She was removed to her home, and is in a critical condition.

HOME IS HIS CASTLE.

Edwardsville, Ill., March 26.—The time-honored principle that a man's home is his castle has been applied by a jury in the Circuit Court in finding for the defendant in the case of James Tobin against John Winklemeyer for $5,000 damages because the latter's dog disfigured his face. The defense set up that the dog had a perfect right to defend its own premises against an intruder, and the jury so decided.

B. S. RADFORD
KILLED BY CARS
AT CUTHRIE.

Crushed Under a Freight Train Switching In the Yards.

WAS EN ROUTE HOME.

He Represented a Fruit Company and Was Located at Cincinnati.

Baker S. Radford, of Pembroke, was killed at Guthrie Sunday night, by a freight train. He was there changing cars enroute from Cincinnati to visit his mother, Mrs. C. J. Radford, near Pembroke.

His brother, James A. Radford, is eastern representative of The California Citrus Fruit Company, married Miss Brister, of Russellville, Ky., but at present is located at Baltimore. Last December he placed his brother, Baker S. Radford, at Cincinnati, in charge of the surrounding territory. The latter in turn had another brother, Jos. E. Radford, working under him, with headquarters at Louisville. One other brother, Will D. Radford, is a farmer at Howell, Ky., and there are three sisters—Mrs. W. J. Chiles and Misses Stella and Charlie Radford. The two last named live with their mother. Sunday Mrs. Radford received a telegram from Baker saying he would arrive home on the 10 o'clock train. He had lately had an attack of rheumatism and was coming home to rest up a while.

He got off the Memphis train at Guthrie about 8:30 o'clock and was waiting for the train due an hour later. He was in the depot with a drummer friend and walked out on the platform. He had been gone but a few minutes when news came that a man had been killed. The drummer, whose name was not learned, upon finding that it was his friend, telephoned to his cousin, Mr. Walter A. Radford, at Pembroke, who notified his brother Will at Howell and they reached Guthrie during the night and took charge of the remains. The body was brought to Mrs. Radford's home yesterday morning. Deceased was 43 years old and was the second son of the family. He was a cousin of Walter A. Radford, of Pembroke, Capt. Cyrus S. Radford, of the U. S. Navy, and Jas. A. Radford of Houston, Texas.

The funeral services will be held this morning at ten o'clock.

The decree of a lower Court awarding John G. Carlisle, of New York, former Secretary of the Treasury, $25,349 for professional services in a contest against the constitutionality of the laws under which duties were levied on goods imported from Poto Rico, has been affirmed by the Appellate division of the Supreme Court.

LOOSE CARS

On Track Caused Two Men to be Killed.

An L. & N. freight train, No 111, ran into some loose cars on the track at Clarksville between 11 and 12 o'clock Sunday night and a wreck occurred. Engineer Murray and Fireman Claypool were both killed and the wreckage blocked the track for several hours. Both of the men lived in Bowling Green. Claypool was a son of James Claypool, and leaves a family. Murray was unmarried, but had a sister with whom he made his home. It is not clear how the loose cars happened to be left on the main track.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided, by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Bennettville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her weight and health, and became more and more like her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." R. C. Hardwick, druggist, sells and guarantees them at 50c a bottle.

Sleepless Nights for Mother

CURED BY CUTICURA

Had Given up All Hope of Ever Making Any Cure.

Mrs. I. B. Jones, Addison, Ind.

T., writes: "My little girl had been suffering for two years from eczema, and during that time I could not get a night's sleep, as her ailment was very severe. I had tried so many remedies and spent so much money, deriving no benefit, I had given up all hope of making any cure. As a last resort I was persuaded to try Cuticura, and the great relief I received was a marked change was made from the first application. I gave the child a bath with Cuticura Soap, using a soft piece of cotton in the water, and then a day or two later, following with Cuticura Ointment, and at the same time gave the Resolvent, according to directions. The child is now well and two bottles of the Resolvent, together with the Soap, effected a permanent cure. I submit this for publication, hoping it will assist other sufferers in curing themselves."
